

Whangawehi Catchment Management Group

Logo Design

Name: Rome K

About my idea

I picked this logo because the green represents the land because half of the world is green. I picked blue because the other half of the world is made up of water. The wavy is about both looking after the land (riparian planting) so we have clear and healthy water ways.

